RENO RAINBOW FEST CELEBRATES LACY J. DALTON AT ARTOWN

Reno, NV - July 28, 2012 - Celebrate with Gay folks on Saturday, July 28, in Downtown Wingfield Park, 11a.m.-5p.m. $5 entry fee

Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy all-day entertainment including the incredible country music recording artist Lacy J. Dalton. A country music singer and songwriter with a deep gritty and soulful vocal delivery and one of the most instantly recognizable voices in Nashville, Dalton was one of the most distinctive female country singers of the '80s

Reno Taiko Tsurunokai Drummers and many other performers with amazing talent will captivate you from 11am-5pm as you browse through the Artists Row, Youth Dance Tent and diverse exhibits in this all-inclusive family event.

Build Our Center's CommUNITY Parade will lead participants into the Festival grounds at 10:30 am for a full day of fun.

Cool off after the festival at the third annual adult SPLASH Pool Party featuring Rendezvous w/Cool Beans starting at 5pm at Harrah's Reno.

The fun continues at the 5 Star Saloon's Rainbow Party featuring rockin' DJ Haute Mess and his exotic San Francisco GoGo Dancers at 10:30pm.

Call Harrah's Reno & Casino, Reno Rainbow Fest's first-class Host Hotel, for special room rates, at 1-888-726-6311.

Enjoy complimentary hors d'oeuvres at the third annual Welcome Party on Friday night, July 27, 7pm at Harrah's Reno.

Hang out at the Welcome Party until Reno's Biggest Little Sisters Rainbow Bar Shuttle gathers at 8p.m. to take you out for an outlandishly fun trip to all the local gay bars.

Finish the night at the 18+ Official Rainbow Fest Kick off V-PARTY at Tronix, 10:30pm.

Local Gay Bar activities are scheduled throughout Gay Rainbow Week. Keep posted for updates at www.RenoRainbowFest.com.

Reno Rainbow Fest is Sponsored by Intuit. and Harrah's Hotel and Casino.
